BE A ROCK

Peter's history as a follower or friend of Jesus is a bit spotty. It might be natural to wonder if Jesus, in giving him the keys to the kingdom, didn't feel a bit like a parent giving a teenager the keys to the family car. But it was at the moment when God's power and presence broke through everything else to raise up Peter's great profession of faith in Christ as Messiah that Jesus chose to establish the bond between the loving, forgiving mercy of heaven and our vocation to be witnesses of that love, mercy, and forgiveness on earth.

Like any parent, Jesus no doubt foresaw the failings, the irresponsible maneuvers or impaired senses, the collisions that the church would be headed for. But, most importantly, he also saw us at that moment as God prefers to see us: capable of manifesting great faith, with a willingness to remain at the feet of Christ to understand what it truly means to be Messiah and Christ. As the letter to the Romans points out to us today, we have not known the mind or the wisdom of God, but God knows us and still chooses to manifest the reign of justice, joy, beauty, and peace through us. Let this be our vocation. Let us always strive to be solid ground on which the church of Jesus Christ can be founded and on which it can continue to be built.

IGNATIAN SILENT RETREAT: GOSPEL CONTEMPLATION

Praying the Gospel is an essential dynamic of the Spiritual Exercises of St. Ignatius. We come to know the Lord by following him as he walks among the people — healing and teaching. As we know the Lord, we love him the more.

This year's Ignatian Silent Retreat at the Redemptorist Renewal Center (7101 W. Picture Rocks Rd. in Tucson) will be held Sept. 22-24. It will focus on this way of praying the Gospel with meditations that lead us to reflect on the quality of discipleship in our everyday lives.

Fr. Timothy Gallagher, OMV will open for us what St. Ignatius wrote about these methods and guide us in useful ways of integrating these practices in our daily prayer to let the Scriptures come alive. There will be ample opportunity in the silence to speak and listen to God.

To obtain more information or to register, contact Ann Dickson at anndickson@theriver.com or 520-378-2486.
