GOD'S PROMISE TO ALL PEOPLE

Today Isaiah reminds the people of God that the land shall be restored to their possession, they shall rejoice to see their people return from the bondage of exile, and that they shall be a light to the nations. In other words, through the people of Israel, the Savior shall come to all people who seek God with a sincere heart. This brings joy and the radiance of God's glory to all the world and to all people everywhere. Through the fidelity of the people of God, and through God's fidelity to them, all people shall become God's children and rejoice in the fulfillment of God's promise to Israel.

Is Food a Problem for You?

Overeaters Anonymous is a 12-step program patterned after AA. It deals with all types of food and weight problems: compulsive eating, restricting, vomiting, bingeing, excessive use of laxatives or diuretics. O.A. meets here in Room 5 of the Education Bldg. on Thurs. from 5:30-6:30 p.m. and in Room 3 on Wed. from 7:30-8:30 a.m. and Fri. from 7:30-8:30 a.m. For more information, call Janet at 795-7492.

— LET'S STAY WELL —

Some of us have compromised immune systems. If you have symptoms of the flu or a cold, such as fever, severe coughing, or a runny nose, please help safeguard the health of your brothers and sisters in your church community by staying home. While you are recovering, please do not shake hands or drink from the Communion cup until you are completely symptom-free. Your consideration of and care for others in this regard is deeply appreciated.

NATIONAL MIGRATION WEEK: JAN. 7-14, 2018

The U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops has celebrated National Migration Week for over half a century. This is an opportunity for the Church to reflect on the circumstances confronting immigrants and refugees, especially the children among them and human trafficking survivors. This year's theme, "Many Journeys, One Family," draws attention to the fact that all of our families have a migration story: some recent and others in the distant past. Regardless of where we are and where we came from, we remain part of the human family and are called to live in solidarity with one another.

In honor of National Migration Week, Catholic Community Services in Tucson will be holding an information session on the Immigration and Refugee Services they provide. All are welcome to the brief presentation, followed by refreshments and an opportunity to meet the wonderful staff who provide the services. This will take place on Wed., Jan. 10th, from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m. in the CCS Boardroom, located at 140 W. Speedway Blvd., #130. For more information, contact Margaret Palmer at margaretp@ccs-soaz.org or call her at 520-670-0821.

MASS AND MARCH FOR LIFE

The Diocese of Tucson will hold its annual Mass and March for Life on Sat., Jan. 20th. Bishop Weisenburger will celebrate Mass at 9:00 a.m. at St. Augustine Cathedral, and the March to Holy Hope Cemetery will immediately follow. The traditional Rose Ceremony will be held when we arrive at Holy Hope. With this action we come together in prayer for protection for the unborn. Everyone is welcome. Please feel free to attend the Mass and/or Ceremony, even if you are physically unable to participate in the March. For more information, contact Sr. Leonette Kochan at 520-838-2560 or e-mail her at lkochan@diocesetucson.org.

VOLUNTEER WITH LEND-A-HAND

Lend-a-Hand needs you! Volunteers partner with senior neighbors in 13 midtown neighborhoods north of the U. of A. Drivers are needed for transportation, errands and produce delivery. Good conversationalists and caring listeners are needed for social activities and friendly calls and visits. Handypersons are needed for simple home maintenance and yard work. You tell us the amount of time you can give. Our senior neighbors, our community's elders, need you! Call Michelle Brubaker at 520-248-6882.

TREASURES FROM OUR TRADITION

Where on earth would you go to honor the magi? Iran or Saudi Arabia, Tarshish or the Isles come to mind, but Cologne, Germany would be a good choice. There the Shrine of the Three Kings has been the centerpiece of the city's cathedral since the fourth century. Today it is the largest reliquary in the world: a gilded and ornamented triple casket gleaming high above the altar. In the fourth century, the supposed relics of the wise men were taken from Constantinople to Milan, where they remained until the German Emperor with the unlikely name Frederick Barbarossa (Red Beard) gave them to the Archbishop of Cologne. Ever since, pilgrims have streamed into the city to honor the magi, the first of all pilgrims, and thus the heavenly patrons of all who have some holy wanderlust.

This largest Gothic cathedral in Europe today was begun in the mid-1200s to house the relics. In medieval times, the relics in a city's possession were often the key to a sound international economy. The reliquary was last opened in 1864, and the remains of three men were indeed discovered. The cathedral is well worth a visit, with enormous twin spires forming the largest façade of any church in the world (it is the model for St. Patrick's in New York). Construction began in 1248 and ended in 1880, a six-hundred-year project. Today, it is a World Heritage Site, described by the U.N. as "an exceptional work of human creative genius." This great treasure of our tradition suffered fourteen direct bomb hits in World War II but did not collapse. It survived while the city burned around it, preserved, the townspeople say, by three heavenly patrons.
