SO THAT YOU MAY BELIEVE

It is not often that the author of one of the books of the Bible comes right out and tells us directly why he is writing what he is writing. In this Sunday's Gospel reading, taken from the conclusion of John's Gospel, the author tells us that he has chosen to record these events so "that you may come to believe that Jesus is the Christ, the Son of God, and that through this belief you may have life in his name" (20:31).

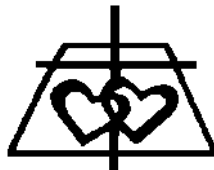

The letter of John echoes this idea by saying that "[e]veryone who believes that Jesus is the Christ is begotten by God" (5:1)—what we might refer to as being "born again." Our reading from the Acts of the Apostles for this Second Sunday of Easter shows us exactly what it looks like when believers are born again through faith.

CAFÉ JUSTO TODAY

A warm and friendly reminder from your Café Justo team that this weekend you can step out after Mass to the East Breezeway (Sat.) or the Parish Hall (Sun.) and conveniently buy the main ingredient for your warm-weather iced coffee. Perk, then cool, and add ice or a scoop of ice cream. Delicious! Buy Café Justo by the pound in ground or whole bean, in regular, dark or decaf.
