THE HIGHEST LAW

From time to time, newspapers and magazines will offer, as an item of "filler," various laws that are still on the books but seem silly to us in our day and age. In one California city, it is illegal to have two indoor bathtubs in one house. Clean water, a precious commodity when the law was written, is now readily available, so the law seems silly. But the human value of protecting and preserving precious resources is still around, evident in many conservation laws that seem sensible to us. So it is with the laws of religious tradition. What Jesus scorns today is others' attitude toward ritual laws, an attitude that becomes nearly idolatrous when laws are observed for their own sake. Jesus teaches that observation of external ritual laws is of value only when they are emblems of our internal disposition toward the will of God. Our whole lives must follow the one ultimate law of God: to love God completely and to love neighbor entirely. Roman Catholicism is a tradition rich with customs, traditions, and even laws. As we continue to listen to the voice of Christ, we must always look into our own hearts and underneath our ritual practices to make sure that love of God and love of neighbor are what we prize above all.

THE CARE & SHARE MINISTRY

Many of us know, and want you to know, that our volunteers in the parish Care & Share group are truly caring people engaged in an important ministry — assisting fellow parish members whose loved ones have died with receptions after funerals. These volunteers may buy food (usually sandwiches, salads, fruit/veggie trays, and desserts, or sometimes just desserts), set the tables in the Hall or Rm. 5, serve the food and coffee, etc., and clean up. Some bereaved families opt for a caterer or make some of the food themselves, and Care & Share might help them with the rest of the work. Families normally make a contribution to the parish to reimburse us for the cost of food & paper goods. If you'd like to join this ministry, or have questions, call the parish office.

FALL ARTS & CRAFTS FAIR

The Parish Sewing Group will once again sponsor their annual Arts and Crafts Fair. It will take place in the Parish Hall on November 3rd and 4th. We love to have a selection of all kinds of arts & crafts, not just sewing crafts, so if you are interested in booking a table to sell your handmade items, please call Diane at 888-2593.

CAFÉ JUSTO NEXT WEEKEND

In Tastes of Paradise, author Wolfgang Schivelbusch wrote that coffee imported to Europe from the Middle East “awakened a drowsing humanity from its alcoholic stupor to middle-class common sense and industry.” Join us next weekend and purchase Café Justo by the pound to awaken from your late-summer sleepiness.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Your parish chapter of the Society of Saint Vincent de Paul needs your help. There are people in our area who don't have enough to eat, and some who are facing eviction or shutting off of utilities need help with rent or a utility bill. Here is our wish list for our pantry:

- |                      |               |
|----------------------|---------------|
| canned tuna          | cereal        |
| canned fruit         | peanut butter |
| canned vegetables    | jelly         |
| canned refried beans | toilet paper  |
| dried pinto beans    | bath soap     |
| rice                 | toothbrushes  |
| pasta                | toothpaste    |
| pasta sauce          | dish soap     |
| macaroni & cheese    |               |

If you prefer to make a monetary donation, we will use it for rent and utilities. If you'd like to become a volunteer, call the parish office. Thank you for your continued support. God bless you all!
