TOO MUCH INFORMATION!

There is a common expression: “Too much information!” We usually use it when people tell us details about their lives that we don’t want or need to know. Today, when James and John ask Jesus a simple question, making their request for places of honor in the kingdom, a simple answer might have been in order. Instead, as he often does, Jesus answers a question with a question; today it’s about drinking the cup of suffering. Then, once the others are indignant over James and John’s outrageous request, he proceeds to give them what may have been “too much information” for followers who were simply interested in the pursuit of glory. But this information, though it can sometimes seem “too much” for us, is essential for our lives as disciples. In Isaiah, in Hebrews, and in Mark today, we learn this information. It is in suffering, in weakness, in self-giving service to others, that we come to understand the kingdom. It is the information we need to find our place and come to be honored in the reign of God.

LET'S GET TOGETHER TO WATCH A CHRISTIAN MOVIE!

Join us in Rm. 6 on Wed., Oct. 31 to watch the movie Full of Grace. There is one person in the gospels that had the experience of living thirty years with Jesus, from his birth through his resurrection: Mary, his mother. In this film, it is 10 years after the Resurrection and Mary is eagerly awaiting the return of the Apostle Peter. We will watch this 5-star movie starting at 9:30 a.m. We'll finish up by noon. Bring something to drink and maybe a snack to share. Call Mary Lou at 488-3213 if you have any questions.

Catholic Community Services Needs Supplies for Asylum Seekers

Catholic Community Services is coordinating temporary housing for hundreds of asylum seekers. Most are women and children from Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador. Immigration and Customs Enforcement knows about these people who have been released from their custody, so helping them with basic needs while they wait for asylum proceedings is not illegal. Because the Greyhound bus station is operating at half capacity, traveling to various destination cities has been delayed. Stranded travelers need the following items: backpacks or totes, jackets and sweaters and long pants for women in small and medium sizes and for men in small sizes, women's socks and closed-toed shoes, underwear for men, women and children, travel blankets (buses can be freezing), and food for traveling such as granola bars, juice boxes, snack packs of tuna or cheese & crackers, etc. Please bring donated items Monday through Friday only, between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., to Catholic Community Services, 140 W. Speedway, Suite 130. The number for Catholic Community Services is (520) 623-0344. If you would like to volunteer to help with the ongoing work of hospitality to those seeking asylum, call Casa Alitas at (520) 591-6390.

FALL ARTS & CRAFTS FAIR

The Parish Sewing Group will once again sponsor their annual Arts and Crafts Fair. It will take place in the Parish Hall on November 3rd and 4th. We love to have a selection of all kinds of arts & crafts, not just sewing crafts, so if you are interested in booking a table to sell your handmade items, please call Rose at 881-3216.

RED MASS OCTOBER 22

The annual Red Mass is sponsored by the St. Thomas More Society and the Catholic Foundation for the Diocese of Tucson. It is offered to inspire, guide and strengthen all those involved in the legal and law enforcement community and their families. Everyone is welcome to join us on Mon., Oct. 22 at 5:30 p.m. at Sts. Peter and Paul Church, 1946 E. Lee St. in Tucson. The honorees this year are Timothy Reckart, Esq. and (posthumously) Officer Jesus Manuel Cordova. Mr. Reckart has a long history of service to the community and the Church. Officer Cordova made the ultimate sacrifice in pursuit of justice, as was so conspicuously reflected in the life and death of St. Thomas More. The annual scholarship in honor of Judge John Roll will be presented to a University of Arizona law student. For more information, e-mail Laura Conover at laura@yourtucsonlawfirm.com.
