THE HOPE AND PROMISE OF REDEMPTION

The prophet Jeremiah prophesies the end of the Babylonian exile. He describes how the weak and sorrowful people now return with joy. These are the scattered people of God: the blind and the lame, the mothers and pregnant women. They shall be led along an easy road so that no one will stumble.

The Lord's kindness and mercy are on all these weak and broken people.

Here and in Psalm 126 we find the most lovely poetic images of God's love and care for us. "Those that sow in tears / shall reap rejoicing. Although they go forth weeping, / carrying the seed to be sown, / they shall come back rejoicing, / carrying their sheaves" (Psalm 126:5-6). Although God had to punish Israel for their many sins, God never forgot them, scattered as they were, and brings them all back to the land of their ancestors, there to flourish and be joyful again. We can see in this the hope and the promise of our own redemption, gathered from the far corners of the earth into the great banquet of God. Copyright © J. S. Paluch Co., Inc.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — I will lead the people to brooks of water, on a level road, so that none shall stumble (Jeremiah 31:7-9).

Psalm — The Lord has done great things for us; we are filled with joy (Psalm 126).

Second Reading — It was not Christ who glorified himself, but rather the one who said to him: You are my son: this day I have begotten you (Hebrews 5:1-6).

Gospel — Immediately the blind man received his sight and followed Jesus on the way (Mark 10:46-52).

GRADES 6-12

This week: Confirmation Class #3 — Are your promises important to you? Is it easy to break a promise? Your parents made a promise when they had you baptized. Now it's your turn.

Next week: Choices! Decisions! Do you always make the "right" choice? How do you know if you made the right choice? Do you know that you make choices every day that will affect your future? Wow! Let's talk about it.

FREE TUTORING WEDNESDAY NIGHTS

The Youth Group sponsors free tutoring for all ages and all subjects on many Wed. nights that school is in session.

Tutoring takes place in Rm. 7 (portable building behind Ed. Bldg.) from 5:30 to 8:30 p.m. Bring your assignment, books, notes, etc. The tutoring sessions will be held on the following dates remaining in this semester:

November 7, 14, 28 December 5, 12

Questions? Call Jim Mueller at 327-0614.

LET'S GET TOGETHER TO WATCH A CHRISTIAN MOVIE!

Join us in Rm. 6 on Wed., Oct. 31 to watch the movie Full of Grace. There is one person in the gospels that had the experience of living thirty years with Jesus, from his birth through his resurrection: Mary, his mother. In this film, it is 10 years after the Resurrection and Mary is eagerly awaiting the return of the Apostle Peter. We will watch this 5-star movie starting at 9:30 a.m. We'll finish up by noon. Bring something to drink and maybe a snack to share. Call Mary Lou at 488-3213 if you have any questions.

ST. FRANCES CABRINI'S FEAST DAY COMING SOON

Our parish patron saint's Feast Day is Nov. 13th. On Sun., Nov. 11th, we will celebrate in her honor and pay tribute to her at our Second Sunday Gathering in the Parish Hall after each Sunday Mass.

We need some volunteers to help make this happen. If you could spare a few hours to help set up the chairs, tables and decorations or to help serve the refreshments, or to help with clean-up, either on Sat. Nov. 10 from 9:00 to 11:00 a.m. or on Sun., Nov. 11 following either Mass, please call Mary Lou at 488-3213 or sign up on the sheet in the church vestibule. If you are reading this and thinking, "I could help with that," thank you very much for being a blessing to your fellow parish members.

CATHOLIC MEN'S CONFERENCE

The Diocese of Tucson and the Knights of Columbus are sponsoring the annual Catholic Men's Conference that will be held on Saturday, November 3rd from 8:00 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Parish, which is located at 8650 N. Shannon Rd. in Tucson. The theme of this year's Conference is "Iron Sharpens Iron." Join men from all over the Diocese of Tucson as we learn from one another and strengthen each other to meet the challenges of our Christian calling. Bishop Edward Weisenburger will welcome everyone and preside at Mass. The keynote speakers will be Greg Wasinski and Jesse Romero. For more information and to register, visit the website tucsonmensconference.org.

Catholic Community Services Needs Supplies for Asylum Seekers

Catholic Community Services is coordinating temporary housing for hundreds of asylum seekers. Most are women and children from Guatemala, Honduras and El Salvador. Immigration and Customs Enforcement knows about these people who have been released from their custody, so helping them with basic needs while they wait for asylum proceedings is not illegal. Because the Greyhound bus station is operating at half capacity, traveling to various destination cities has been delayed. Stranded travelers need the following items: backpacks or totes, jackets and sweaters and long pants for women in small and medium sizes and for men in small sizes, women's socks and closed-toed shoes, underwear for men, women and children, travel blankets (buses can be freezing), and food for traveling such as granola bars, juice boxes, snack packs of tuna or cheese & crackers, etc. Please bring donated items Monday through Friday only, between 8:00 a.m. and 5:00 p.m., to Catholic Community Services, 140 W. Speedway, Suite 130. The number for Catholic Community Services is (520) 623-0344. If you would like to volunteer to help with the ongoing work of hospitality to those seeking asylum, call Casa Alitas at (520) 591-6390.

FALL ARTS & CRAFTS FAIR NEXT WEEKEND

The annual Parish Arts & Crafts Fair, sponsored by our Sewing Crafts Group, will take place in the Parish Hall on Sat., Nov. 3, from 11:00 a.m. to 6:30 p.m., and on Sunday, Nov. 4, from 8:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m. Stop by to visit 38 tables of handmade items of all kinds. Some vendors are returning from previous years, but we also have new ones, so come check out the variety. You will find hand-crafted Christmas decorations, soaps, greeting cards, jewelry, and dream-catchers, all kinds of interesting items (ceramic, wood, etc.) to decorate a home, hand-decorated clothing, towels, table and bed coverings, and so much more. We will have at least one table of local authors selling books they have written. The St. Vincent de Paul Society will have a food table and sell raffle tickets for a new car. The Cabrini Choir will also have a table this year selling craft items to help pay for their accompanist's services. Items sold by members of the Sewing Crafts Group help fund their projects of donating handmade clothing, blankets, baby toys and more to various charities. Come to the Fair and have a good time meeting up with friends, maybe get going on your Christmas shopping, and encourage the creativity and dedication of a lot of nice people!
