WELCOME THE STRANGER

We have become accustomed to seeing pictures in the media and stories on the news about immigrants from Latin America and refugees from Syria fleeing violence and destruction in their own countries, trying to make their way to a safe place. We have also seen the reactions of people who want to keep them away from their countries, who fail to welcome the stranger and the helpless children. Have we forgotten Jesus' call to comfort the homeless and the stranger? "They shall bring all your brothers and sisters from all the nations . . . to Jerusalem, my holy mountain, says the LORD."

In the three readings for this day, we are told that we are to welcome these strangers, to welcome the discipline of the Lord, which leads to peace, and to "strive to enter through the narrow gate" into the glory of God's own homeland, the reign of God.

Next week: No class — Labor Day break. See you at Mass!

PARISH CHILDREN'S RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We are in the process of finding a new director for our parish program of religious education for children younger than those served by the Youth Ministry. If you have children from age 3 up through grade 5 and would like to have them in religious education classes, please call or email the parish office and leave your name and contact information, along with the names and ages of your children, and we will pass this information along to the new director as soon as we have one. To apply for the position of Director of Religious Education, go to the Jobs section of the Diocese of Tucson's website, which is www.diocesetucson.org.

A CABRINI CELEBRATION

The new Cabrini Carousel will take place in tandem with our celebration of St.

Frances Cabrini's Feast Day on Sat., Nov, 16 (7:00 p.m.) and Sun., Nov. 17 (1:00 p.m.). Come for a nice meal (regular or vegetarian options) and family-oriented entertainment in the Parish Hall for only $12 for adults, $7 for kids. This is a fund-raiser for the parish as well as an opportunity for fun and laughter. Purchase tickets and get more information in Rm. 1 after any weekend Mass, in the parish office during office hours, or from one of our ticket sellers any time.

We hope you enjoy the new Bulletin format. It is not costing the parish more money! Please patronize our advertisers. To arrange for an ad, contact Claudia Borders at 1-800-231-0805 or bordersc@jspaluch.com.
