POST-SUMMER CHALLENGES

With any luck, summer delights will continue a while past last weekend's Labor Day: refreshing recreation (with maybe an occasional swim) or enjoyable relaxation on the deck (with tasty outdoor grilling). Truth is, for some of us, this year's Labor Day came way too early. With many schools back in session for a while already, mealtimes and driving schedules needed readjustment to coordinate youth sports with adult commitments. Some religious education and parish programs resumed, too. No surprise, then, that this weekend's scriptures sound a little like post-summer challenges. For instance, Wisdom reminds us that believers in God can never be content with "timid deliberations" and "unsure plans." Paul challenges longtime friend and follower Philemon to "let the good you do be voluntary." Jesus instructs "great crowds" traveling with him—including us—on three things necessary for all true disciples to accomplish. On this early autumn weekend, our scriptures describe disciples' lifelong labors. — Copyright © J. S. Paluch

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — You sent your holy spirit from on high and thus were the paths of those on earth made straight (Wisdom 9:13-18b).
 Psalm — In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge (Psalm 90).
 Second Reading — Paul asks Philemon to accept back his slave Onesimus as a brother (Philemon 9-10, 12-17).
 Gospel — Which of you wishing to construct a tower does not first sit down and calculate the cost to see if there is enough for its completion? (Luke 14:25-33).

2019-2020 FINANCIAL REPORT

Sunday Collection Total for Sept. 1, 2019:
$ 4027

Total includes ACH deposits and credit card donations. Amount needed weekly this fiscal year is an average of $8,355 per week. Last year's budget had $8,846 as the amount needed weekly; we have made spending cuts.

GRADES 6-12

Call Mary Lou at 488-3213 if you want more information about our Cabrini Youth Group.

This week: No class — Labor Day break. See you at Mass!

Next week: Your Circle of Grace — what is it? We all need to feel safe and comfortable. Let's talk about what is happening in our world that can lead to feeling uncomfortable or even unsafe. How safe are you on-line? What is cyber-bullying?

PARISH CHILDREN'S RELIGIOUS EDUCATION

We are in the process of finding a new director for our parish program of religious education for children younger than those served by the Youth Ministry. To apply for the position of Director of Religious Education, go to the Jobs section of the Diocese of Tucson's website, which is www.diocesetucson.org.

A CABRINI CELEBRATION

The new Cabrini Carousel will take place in tandem with our celebration of St. Frances Cabrini's Feast Day on Sat., Nov. 16 (7:00 p.m.) and Sun., Nov. 17 (1:00 p.m.). Come for a nice meal (regular and vegetarian options) and family-oriented entertainment in the Parish Hall for only $12 for adults, $7 for kids. This is a fund-raiser for the parish as well as an opportunity for fun and laughter. Purchase tickets and get more information in Rm. 1 after any weekend Mass, in the parish office during office hours, or from one of our ticket sellers any time. Because we must know how much food to prepare, tickets will not be available at the door.

We hope you enjoy the new color Bulletin format. It is not costing the parish more money! Please patronize our advertisers. To arrange for an ad, contact Claudia Borders at 1-800-231-0805 or bordersc@jspaluch.com.

CAFÉ JUSTO TODAY!

Enjoy the simple things in life. Pack lunches, fix breakfast for those you love, pour a thermos of Café Justo to take to work. Enjoy your day! This weekend, you can buy delicious, organic Café Justo by the pound at a fair market price — $9 for regular or dark (beans or ground) and $10 for decaf. Donations for our coffee-growing co-op community in the mountains of Mexico are always welcome. You will find our volunteers in the east breezeway after 5:00 Saturday Mass and in the Hall after each Sunday Mass at the Second Sunday Gathering. Stop by for a smile, a free sample and a free cookie at our table. Like to join our team of volunteers? Let us know at the coffee table. Thank you!

OLD TESTAMENT BIBLE STUDY

A seven-class Bible Study series will begin Mon., Sept. 16 in Rm. 8 (in portable building). We will study the Book of Daniel. It is said that in order to truly understand the meaning of the New Testament, a person must study the Old Testament. The class will continue every other Monday until Dec. 9. If you are interested in attending, or would like more information, please call Mary Lou at 488-3213.

CATHOLIC CHURCH HISTORY STUDY

The last third of the series Great Courses: History of the Catholic Church, lectures 25 through 36, will resume on Tues., Sept. 10th at 9:00 a.m. in Room 1 of the Education Building. The series features a half hour video lecture by Prof. William Cook, SUNY, followed by half an hour of discussion. If you'd like to participate, we'll see you in Rm. 1 on Sept. 10th.

WEDNESDAY MORNING MOVIES

This popular discussion series will start again on Sept. 11th at 9:30. We will watch and discuss session 3 of The Story of God series, narrated by Morgan Freeman. The topic for Sept. 11 is "The Search for the Devil." Where do people find evil spirits and what do they do when they find them? A Buddhist temple in Nepal, monks in the Judean desert, and a Vatican exorcist will be visited. If you have a question, call Mary Lou Bauer at 488-3213.

THE PARISH LIBRARY is open in Room 4 after the Sunday Masses. Come and check it out! In addition to works about religion, we have books on a variety of other subjects, both non-fiction and fiction.
