HOW GOD INTENDS US TO LIVE

Today's readings are again directed to believers, communities of faith. As in last week's reading, Amos confronts us with a condemnation of those whose lives are focused on pleasure and self-absorption. The psalm contrasts that focus with the Lord's—justice for the oppressed; food the hungry; freedom for captives; sight to the blind; raising of those who are bowed down; loving the just; protecting strangers, orphans, and the widow; and by doing so, thwarting the way of the wicked. Timothy urges the pursuit of righteousness, devotion, faith, love, patience, and gentleness. Luke tells the familiar tale of the wealthy man and the poor beggar at his doorstep, who experience life very differently in this world and in the next. We are once again being given clear indications about how God intends for us to live our lives.

HAVE YOU BEEN LOOKING FOR FR. BOB'S BOOKS?

Fr. Bob Fuller, our late and much-loved former pastor, published Homilies from the Heart, a compilation of his homilies, in three volumes. The parish office no longer has access to the books. Year A is currently available on Amazon. Copies of Years B and C will be given away free at each of the Masses at St. Pius X Parish during their Golden Jubilee weekend of Oct. 5-6. This is a one-time event; these volumes are no longer in print. The owner of several boxes of these books attends Mass there and is giving them away free during the Jubilee weekend at St. Pius, where Fr. Bob had been pastor before he came to Cabrini. You can check weekend Mass times at www.stpiusxtucson.org.
