He has been raised from the dead, and is going before you to Galilee.

MATTHEW 28:7

SEEDS OF FAITH

There is a brevity, a certain terseness, in the scripture readings for Easter Sunday. Peter's speech in Acts is built of direct, pointed sentences. Paul's letters are based on straightforward creed-like statements. Even the Gospel story only briefly recounts what will turn out to be one of the most remarkable events in human history—the resurrection of Jesus from the dead. Advertising agents call these encapsulated points of information “bullet points.” Scripture scholars call them kerygmata, or “kernels” of our faith. Actually, “kernels” or “seeds” are good terms for these statements, since throughout the Easter season, we will hear in the Acts of the Apostles, the Letters of Paul, and the Gospel accounts of the days following the Resurrection exactly how these kerygmata began to flower, how they continued to grow through the life of the early church. May these Easter “seeds” of faith serve a similar purpose for us, too, so that the life of the Risen Christ will flourish in us and through our witness in the coming days.

This Week at St. Frances Cabrini

When we are able to have Masses and other gatherings again, we will post this good news on our website. In the meantime, the website of the Diocese of Tucson has an inspiring posting from our bishop about Spiritual Communion that we urge everyone to read and take to heart while the mandated restrictions on all public gatherings are in place due to the virus pandemic.

Please call and share this information with anyone you know who comes to our church who does not have Internet access. You may tell them to call our office if they would like a printout of the article on Spiritual Communion sent to them.

We will also be glad to mail copies to anyone who requests them of the letters that Fr. Jay, our pastor, is sending to all parish members for whom we have email addresses. These letters contain a mixture of information we need and some loving words for us all. The March 31 letter includes a good explanation of the church's teaching on what to do if you want to go to Confession but are not able to go. God's grace remains abundant!

HAPPY EASTER!
