THE RICHNESS OF THE SPIRIT

Students, and most adults recalling their school days, are familiar with the phrase “compare and contrast” that shows up from time to time on tests. Today we hear two different accounts of the giving of the Holy Spirit to the church. Let’s contrast, then compare.

Luke’s account from Acts is filled with arresting details: the mighty wind from heaven, the tongues of flame, the miracle of different languages. John’s account seems timid: fearful disciples, the wounded Christ, the expelling of breath from his risen body, not from the sky. Our literal, modern minds wonder which way it happened; our noisy culture probably makes us prefer the former. But if we compare the two, we find that the dazzling richness of the Spirit fills both accounts, for it is the very breath of the risen Christ, ascended to the sky in Luke, that appears to his disciples in John and sends his followers forth to carry on his mission of forgiving sin and proclaiming the mighty acts of God.

NEWS

Out of concern for keeping us all safe, our bishop has not yet authorized a general and total re-opening of all parishes. However, gradual plans are in process. Check the website of the Diocese of Tucson, www.diocesetucson.org, for on-going news.

Although we do not yet think it safe to hold Masses or any other group gatherings indoors, starting the weekend of May 23-24 we began the practice of distribution of Holy Communion in the west parking lot of St. Frances Cabrini Church at the following times: 5:00 to 5:30 p.m. on Saturday, and 8:30 to 9:00 and 10:00 to 10:30 a.m. on Sunday. This will happen each weekend until further notice. We ask that everyone please wear masks, stay in your vehicles, and follow the signs for traffic flow. As you drive beside where he is standing, near the northwest church entrance, our pastor, Fr. Jay, who will be wearing mask and gloves, will reach through your open window and hand you the number of consecrated hosts required for the people in your car who wish to receive it.

A parish member with a collection basket, in mask and gloves, will be standing some distance south of Fr. Jay to receive any offering envelopes people may wish to bring. Please do not get out of your vehicle; put the envelope in the basket through your window.

Fr. Jay has been sending weekly letters to all parish members for whom we have email addresses. If we don’t have your email address and you would like to receive these letters, please email us at cabrini1962@aol.com. When we are ready to further expand services at our parish, he will let you know in an upcoming letter, and we will also put the information in the bulletin, which we post on our parish website.

If you know someone who does not have Internet access and who might like to be mailed paper copies of Fr. Jay’s letters and/or our bulletins, ask them to call the office (326-7670) and let us know. We will be happy to send them.

2019-2020 FINANCIAL REPORT

We could not take up a collection in church, but there were ACH deposits and some people sent in donations or brought them to our office. The amount needed weekly this year is an average of $8,355 per week.

WE SO APPRECIATE ANY CONTRIBUTIONS YOU CAN MAIL IN WHILE WE ARE CLOSED. OR YOU MAY CONTRIBUTE ON-LINE. INSTRUCTIONS:

SAINT VINCENT DE PAUL NEWS

Our SVdP Conference appreciates the financial and food donations we have received from parishioners. These allow us to continue assisting those in need within our parish boundaries, even during this pandemic.

We have made changes in our safety procedures for our pantry and deliveries. We do not go into homes now and observe safe distance procedures when we make food deliveries.

Those who wish to donate financially to our Conference of the St. Vincent de Paul Society can mail a donation to the parish office or put your envelope through the mail slot in the parish office door. We can make arrangements with you for donating food items if you call our pantry at 881-3075. Leave a message if no one picks up and we will return your call.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL

The ACA is the largest source of funding for the work of the Diocese of Tucson. It funds 26 ministries and charities, including education of new priests, care of retired priests, Catholic Community Services, religious education programs for youth and adults, grants to missions and parishes in need (our parish was awarded $10,000 this year), and prison ministry. The theme for this year's ACA is "Living Our Faith Through Acts of Charity — Faith, Mercy, Hope." We encounter God's love when we express our faith, mercy and compassion, bringing hope to others in acts of service and stewardship. You may contribute to the ACA online on the website of the Diocese. Brochures and contribution envelopes will be available in the vestibule and in the parish office when we reopen. We can also mail them to you. If you have not already done so and are able to, please help support this important funding source for so many good works.
