A NEW DAY DAWNS

Today we hear how Jonah, sent by God to warn the people, storms through the streets of Nineveh, scaring the citizens out of their wits. And it works! God has a change of heart, seeing “by their actions” how the people turn from evil (Jonah 3:10). A new day dawns.

Next we hear Paul telling the Corinthians, “The world in its present form is passing away” (1 Corinthians 7:31). He calls for a change of heart. Stopping short of telling them to stop carrying out their everyday activities, he urges them—rather mysteriously—to live “as though” they aren’t doing the things they are doing. A new day has dawned.

Finally, Jesus stands on the shore and cries, “The kingdom of God is at hand!” (Mark 1:14). Simon and Andrew abandon their nets—and even their father—and follow him. A new day had dawned.

Everyone has to change when a new day dawns: the Ninevites, the Corinthians, the apostles, even Jesus! Didn’t a new day dawn today for us as well?

Our Current Services

Edward Weisenburger, the Bishop of our Diocese, recently informed all priests that they were to close parish offices to the public and suspend all public indoor Masses until at least Feb. 1, at which point he will re-evaluate his decision. This decision was made to protect us all from the spread of COVID-19, since rates of infection, hospitalization and deaths from the virus are higher than ever before. When pandemic conditions allow us to ease restrictions and have Masses and have the office open again on a less restrictive basis, we will let you know in this bulletin and in Fr. Jay’s weekly emailed letters to all parishioners for whom we have email addresses. In addition to posting them on the parish website, we also send Father’s letters and this bulletin by regular mail to those who request them. Call (520) 326-7670.

Our parish will continue to have the Saturday evening drive-through distribution of Holy Communion in the west parking lot of the church. This takes place from 5:00 p.m. to approximately 5:20 p.m.

We ask that you enter the parking lot from the entrance closest to the Rectory on Presidio Rd., drive behind the Hall and Education Building, and from there to the north-west entrance of the church. If you roll down your window (please wear a mask if this is possible for you), Fr. Jay or another Eucharistic Minister, wearing a protective mask, will hand you the blessed hosts for as many people as are in your vehicle. On the way out through the marked exit, a volunteer will also have a basket for financial contributions. The first Sat. of each month we will also have the blue barrel for St. Vincent de Paul items available.

If you need something from the office, please call ahead on a weekday to make sure someone is in the office. We will make arrangements to meet you, masked, at the door to assist you. We will be unable to invite you inside.

TODAY’S READINGS

 Thursday: St. Thomas Aquinas

DO YOU KNOW THIS SAINT?

Saint Angela Merici was born March 21, 1474 and died Jan. 27, 1540; Jan. 27 is her feast day. St. Angela was born on a farm in Lombardy, Italy. Known for her devotion to God and the saints, she joined the Third Order of St. Francis as a young woman. Then she had a vision that she was to found an association of women who would devote themselves to the religious education of girls. She founded the Company of St. Ursula, which after her death became the Order of Ursulines, the first teaching order of women religious. She was canonized in 1807.

Fr. Jay Jensen will say the Masses in private (due to his pre-existing health conditions, he is vulnerable to serious illness if he were to contract the COVID-19 virus). He will offer the Masses for the above Intentions. We invite you also to pray for these people.

MISSALS & CALENDARS

We have the new St. Joseph Missals, which contain the readings used for each Sunday Mass of the liturgical year. We sell them for our cost, $3.00. We will give you one free if you are a Lector. Call the office ahead of time to be sure a staff member is in, and we will meet you at the parish office door to give you the Missal. Please wear a mask — we will too. We appreciate it if you can bring the exact change. We also have free Catholic calendars.

St. Vincent de Paul News

Thank you so much, parish members who have helped our SVdeP Conference with food donations and/or financial assistance. Your help is greatly appreciated and has helped us to continue to serve our brothers and sisters who are in need.

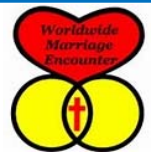

The blue barrels for the collection of non-perishable food (plus basic hygiene and cleaning products) are available only on the first weekend of each month. We appreciate your kind contributions.

DO YOU MISS CAFÉ JUSTO? While the friendly volunteers are not selling it on the church patio or breezeway right now, you can still get some delicious, fairly traded Just Coffee! It's organically grown in Chiapas, Mexico by a cooperative of farming families. Call Judy at 323-3042 to make safe arrangements..

WORLDWIDE MARRIAGE
 ENCOUNTER NOW HAS VIRTUAL
