FALSE PROPHETS, TRUE PROPHETS

In Deuteronomy today we hear that God's very words will fill the mouth of a true prophet, but a false prophet will, in a manner of speaking, put mere mortal words into God's mouth. In Mark's Gospel, we see Jesus teaching and healing as a true prophet, one filled with the authority of God's own voice, the Holy One of God.

The whole history of our church is filled with both true and false prophets. But in today's Gospel we learn that Jesus' fame spread because he taught with authority; he wasn't an authority because he was popular or famous. We also learn from him, in his desert temptation confrontations with Satan, that anyone can quote scripture, even against God's purposes. And today we hear that his authority was not like that of the scribes, who held the official positions of religious authority in his day. Our work is to do our best to discern the true prophets in our midst, and to be true prophets as well. The psalmist tells us how to do this: by not hardening our hearts when God speaks. If we truly listen to God, it will be God's very words filling our mouths.

Our Current Services

Bishop Weisenburger recently informed all priests in our diocese that they were to close parish offices to the public and suspend all public indoor Masses. This decision was made to protect us all from the spread of COVID-19, since rates of infection, hospitalization and deaths from the virus are higher than ever before. When conditions allow us to have Masses and open the office again on a less restrictive basis, we will let you know in this bulletin and in Fr. Jay's weekly emailed letters to all parishioners for whom we have email addresses. In addition to posting them on the parish website, we also send Father's letters and this bulletin by regular mail to those who request them. Call (520) 326-7670 and leave a message.

Our parish will continue to have the Saturday evening drive-through distribution of Holy Communion in the west parking lot of the church. This takes place from 5:00 p.m. to approximately 5:20 p.m.

We ask that you enter the parking lot from the entrance closest to the Rectory on Presidio Rd., drive behind the Hall and Education Building, and from there to the northwest entrance of the church. If you roll down your window (please wear a mask if this is possible for you), Fr. Jay or another Eucharistic Minister, wearing a protective mask, will hand you the blessed hosts for as many people as are in your vehicle. On the way out through the marked exit, a volunteer will also have a basket for financial contributions. The first Sat. of each month we will also have the blue barrel for St. Vincent de Paul items available.

On Ash Wed., Feb. 17, we will have drive-through distribution of ashes in the parking lot at 5:00 p.m.

If you need something from the office, please call ahead on a weekday to make sure someone is in the office. We will make arrangements to meet you, masked, at the door to assist you. We will be unable to invite you inside.

TODAY'S READINGS

First Reading — Moses spoke to all the people, saying: "A prophet like me will the LORD, your God, raise up for you" (Deuteronomy 18:15-20).

Psalm — If today you hear his voice, harden not your hearts (Psalm 95).

Second Reading — Brothers and sisters: I should like you to be free of anxieties (1 Corinthians 7:32-35).

Gospel — The people were astonished at Jesus' teaching; he taught them as one having authority (Mark 1:21-28).

SAINTS AND SPECIAL OBSERVANCES

Sunday: Fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time;
Catholic Schools Week
Tuesday: The Presentation of the Lord;
Blessing of Candles
Wednesday: St. Blaise; St. Ansgar
Friday: St. Agatha; First Friday
Saturday: St. Paul Miki and companions;
First Saturday

Feb. 2 is the Feast of the Presentation of the Lord. In accordance with Jewish law, Mary and Joseph went to the Temple in Jerusalem 40 days after the birth of a male child to complete her ritual purification and present the baby to the Lord, along with a sacrifice of two doves. Chapter 22 of Luke's Gospel records that the Holy Family encountered the saintly elders Simon and Anna in the temple, and they prophesied that the child Jesus was the Light of the world, the Redeemer promised by God. Candles are traditionally blessed on this day.

Fr. Jay Jensen will say the Masses in private (due to his pre-existing health conditions, he is vulnerable to serious illness if he were to contract the COVID-19 virus). He will offer the Masses for the above Intentions. We invite you also to pray for these people.

MISSALS & CALENDARS

We have the new St. Joseph Missals, which contain the readings used for each Sunday Mass of the liturgical year. We sell them for our cost, $3.00. We will give you one free if you are a Lector. Call the office ahead of time to be sure a staff member is in, and we will meet you at the parish office door to give you the Missal. Please wear a mask — we will too. We appreciate it if you can bring the exact change. We also have free Catholic calendars.

St. Vincent de Paul News

Thank you so much, parish members who have helped our SVdeP Conference with food donations and/or financial assistance. Your help is greatly appreciated and has helped us to continue to serve our brothers and sisters who are in need.

The blue barrels for the collection of non-perishable food (plus basic hygiene and cleaning products) are available only on the first weekend of each month. We appreciate your kind contributions.

DO YOU MISS CAFÉ JUSTO? While the friendly volunteers are not selling it on the church patio or breezeway right now, you can still get some delicious, fairly traded Just Coffee! It's organically grown in Chiapas, Mexico by a cooperative of farming families. Call Judy at 323-3042 to make safe arrangements..
