FULFILLMENT

It is interesting that during the Easter season, when we do not hear a reading from the Old Testament, it becomes so important. This is particularly true today. Peter's speech begins with a prayer formula familiar to Jews: "The God of Abraham . . ." (Acts 3:13). It likewise contains the potent phrases "Holy and Righteous One" and "mouth of all the prophets" (3:14, 18). Peter was stating in no uncertain terms that the law, psalms, and prophets had been fulfilled in Christ. This is reinforced by Jesus himself in the Gospel passage, when he states that everything in the scriptures (to the early Christians "the scriptures" were what we call the Old Testament) had to be fulfilled. Above all, Jesus and Peter both emphasize that we are witnesses to all of this, and are sent forth to bear witness to it in the world. The Latin Missa, from which our word "Mass" comes, means "sent" (as in "mission"). As we leave Mass today, let us remember to be witnesses to all that has been fulfilled in the risen Christ.

LITURGY SCHEDULE

Sat., Apr. 10 5:00 p.m. Drive-Through Distribution of Holy Eucharist (West Parking Lot)

Sun., Apr. 11 8:30 a.m. Sunday Mass
10:30 a.m. Sunday Mass

Per diocesan protocols, given the size of our church, attendance at indoor services is limited to 70 persons, to have social distancing. Masks are still required.

At this time, we distribute Holy Communion at the end of Mass, at the west doors of the church. Please allow social distancing while waiting to receive the Eucharist.

We will not pass collection baskets during Masses, but will have them at the west doors of the church at the end of each Mass. A collection basket will also be available at the Drive-Through Communion Service. A volunteer will have it a few car lengths past where Father Jay distributes the Eucharist on the west side of the church.

Confessions are by individual appointment only, at this time. Call the parish office Wed. or Thursday and ask to speak to Fr. Jay, or email him at frjay5101@yahoo.com to make arrangements to receive the Sacrament. Masks and social distancing will be required for mutual health protection.

The Parish Office is currently closed to the general public. At least one staff member is usually there on weekdays between 9:00 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. If you need to come to the office, please call ahead at (520) 326-7670 to be sure someone is there. The staff member will come to the door and wear a mask. If it is possible to serve you without asking you inside, we will do that. Everyone who comes inside will be asked to have their temperature checked and wear a mask.

The first weekend of each month, blue barrels are set out to collect non-perishable foods (plus basic cleaning and toiletry supplies) for our St. Vincent de Paul Society to distribute to people in need. The blue barrels will be at the west doors of the church at the Sunday Masses on the first weekend of the month, and with the volunteer with the collection basket at the drive-through Communion distribution the first Saturday of the month.

ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL: PERSEVERING IN HOPE

Each year, at this time, we are encouraged to consider the needs of our Church and of the Diocese as one family in Christ. Every family in St. Frances Cabrini Parish is invited to make a gift to the 2021 Annual Catholic Appeal, Persevering in Hope. You may receive the Annual Catholic Appeal mailing from Bishop Weisenburger. If not, the brochure and special contribution envelope will be available at the drive-through Communion Service. Michael will have them alongside the collection basket — just ask for an ACA packet. You can also contribute online by visiting www.cathfnd.org/donate, or you may call (520) 838-2504 or text ACA to 41444. Our parish office can also mail you the special contribution envelope upon request. On behalf of those served by the ministries, programs and services funded by the Appeal, we thank you for your prayers, support, and participation in the ACA. Our own parish received a grant in 2020.

A BIG THANK YOU to everyone who contributed flowers to make our sanctuary beautiful for Easter — may God bless you for your generosity! Many thanks also to Michael Ponce and Donna Jacob, who did the banner hanging and flower arranging.

FEAST OF FAITHThe Second Reading

The Liturgy of the Word generally follows a consistent pattern of three readings and a psalm. The second reading is always taken from one of the New Testament epistles or the book of Revelation, and generally is not intentionally aligned with either the Gospel or the first reading.

Where would we be without these letters in which great saints and apostles like Paul, Peter, James, and John share their wisdom and pastoral good sense with the early Christian communities? It is in these letters, even more than in the Gospel narratives, that we learn what it means to be church: to live with each other, in the world yet not of the world, in these days after the Lord's resurrection. Each New Testament letter was written by a particular leader for a particular community at a particular time. We are reminded of this at the beginning of the proclamation—"A reading from the letter of Saint Paul to the Ephesians," or the Corinthians, or the Thessalonians. These texts were shaped by their particular historical and cultural context, but at the same time, through the liturgy, these letters are written to us, here, today. They speak to the realities of Christian living no matter where—or when—we live. They are truly "the word of the Lord" for us.
