SIXTEENTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

July 18, 2021

When Jesus saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved
with pity for them,
*for they were like sheep
without a shepherd.*

Mark 6:34

THE DAYS ARE COMING

Separation, isolation, and hostility are terrible things. We are, sadly, too familiar with all of them in our modern life, whether we look at world events or events in our own neighborhoods and families. All three readings today refer to these same sad human conditions.

The prophet Jeremiah describes world conditions as if the people of his time were sheep who had been scattered by poor leadership and corrupt shepherds. But “the days are coming,” he assures us (Jeremiah 23:5), when a new shepherd, a just king, will come. We meet that king in the second reading and the Gospel. Paul reminds us in the Letter to the Ephesians that all divisions can now cease in Christ Jesus, who has brought us together through his blood. In Mark’s Gospel we see Jesus himself, looking with pity on those searching for him as if they were sheep without a shepherd.

TODAY’S READINGS

First Reading — I shall gather the remnant of my flock and bring them back to their meadow (Jeremiah 23:1-6).

Psalm — The Lord is my shepherd; there is nothing I shall want (Psalm 23).

Second Reading — You who were once far off have become near by the blood of Christ (Ephesians 2:13-18).

Gospel — When Jesus saw the vast crowd, his heart was moved with pity for them, and he began to teach them many things (Mark 6:30-34).

MASS SCHEDULE

Tues., Wed., Thurs.,

Fri. and Sat. Masses

8:00 a.m.

Sat. anticipatory Mass

(meets Sun. Mass obligation) 5:00 p.m.

Sunday Masses

8:30 & 10:30 a.m.

Please note that protocols are different at the 5:00 Saturday and the Sunday Masses.

At the 5:00 Saturday Mass, we will continue to require face masks and social distancing of at least six feet for those not of the same household. Therefore, this Mass is suitable for those who wish to continue to observe these safety precautions.

The Bishop has asked all parishes to have one Mass where safety precautions are still observed. Therefore, if you come to this Mass, please do not make other people uncomfortable by refusing to follow the protocols for this Mass. You will not be asked to follow these precautions at the other Masses.

Those who are fully vaccinated and wish to attend one of the two Sunday Masses will no longer be required to wear face masks or observe the six-foot social distancing requirement. If you will feel more comfortable continuing to wear a mask at Sunday Mass, however, you are welcome to do so.

SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE

It is time for our 4th annual school supply drive. Cabrini parishioners are always so kind to the students in our neighborhood. We were unable to collect supplies last year, but the 2019 drive was an amazing success. We took supplies to 1 middle school and 3 elementary schools in our area. Mary Lou said it was heartwarming when she was privileged to see some of the students get their new supplies. If you can, please buy a few school supplies when shopping to help the students in our neighborhood who are in need. They could use pencils, pens, colored pencils, markers, crayons, folders, binders, notebooks, and backpacks. Boxes will be in the church to collect the donations beginning Aug. 18th. Questions? Call Mary Lou at 488-3213.
