- Gospel Mark 16:1-7

SPECIAL COLLECTION FOR ST. VINCENT DE PAUL

We usually take up a second collection to benefit our parish St. Vincent de Paul Society whenever there is a 5th Sunday in the month. Because the 5th Sunday of March falls on Easter this year, we will take up a collection for St. Vincent de Paul on Sunday, April 7th instead. As you celebrate Easter season this year, please remember people who need help with food or other necessities by praying for them and, if possible, contributing money and/or nonperishable food to SVdP.

The Easter Vigil Mass

March 30, 2024

When the Sabbath was over, Mary Magdalene, Mary the mother of James, and Salome bought spices so that they might go to anoint Jesus' body. Very early on the first day of the week, just after sunrise, they were on their way to the tomb and they asked each other, "Who will roll the stone away from the entrance of the tomb?"

But when they looked up, they saw that the stone, which was very large, had been rolled away. As they entered the tomb, they saw a young man dressed in a white robe sitting on the right side, and they were alarmed.

"Don't be alarmed," he said. "You are looking for Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He has risen! He is not here. See the place where they laid him. But go, tell his disciples and Peter, 'He is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you.'"

Mark 16:1-7

Second Reading (that we will use; it is headed as Third Reading in the Missal)
