MEMORIAL DAY MASS AT HOLY HOPE

Bishop Edward Weisenburger will preside at a special Memorial Day Mass at the Mausoleum in Holy Hope Cemetery at 8:30 a.m. on Monday, May 27th. Memorial Day, originally called Decoration Day, was first officially celebrated in May of 1868 at Arlington National Cemetery. It was a time to honor Union soldiers who died in the Civil War by decorating their graves and remembering their service in public tributes. The annual event has continued in honor of all those who died in service to our country in the wars and conflicts which have followed. President Lyndon B. Johnson officially changed the name to Memorial Day in 1966. Memorial Day now honors all deceased military members who have served our country in peacetime as well as times of armed conflict.

The readings may be found on pages 165-169 of the 2024 Breaking Bread Missals. Here are all the references, in case you want to read them at home later.

First Reading Acts 2:1-11

Responsorial Psalm Ps 104:1, 24, 29-30, 31, 34

Second Reading 1 Cor 12:3b-7, 12-13
or Gal 5:16-25

Gospel Jn 20:19-23

Or Jn 15:26-27; 16:12-15

Here are three different artistic depictions of the experience of Pentecost that is described in the First Reading from the Acts of the Apostles.

The beautiful Sequence Prayer “Veni, Sancte Spiritus,” or “Come, Holy Spirit” is a traditional part of the Pentecost celebration. Hymn #195, which the choir will sing after the second reading, is an adaptation of this prayer.

Veni, Sancte Spiritus

Come, Holy Spirit, come!
And from your celestial home
Shed a ray of light divine!
Come, Father of the poor!
Come, source of all our store!
Come, within our bosoms shine.
You, of comforters the best;
You, the soul's most welcome guest;
Sweet refreshment here below;
In our labor, rest most sweet;
Grateful coolness in the heat;
Solace in the midst of woe.
O most blessed Light divine,
Shine within these hearts of yours,
And our inmost being fill!
Where you are not, we have naught,
Nothing good in deed or thought,
Nothing free from taint of ill.
Heal our wounds, our strength renew;
On our dryness pour your dew;
Wash the stains of guilt away:
Bend the stubborn heart and will;
Melt the frozen, warm the chill;
Guide the steps that go astray.
On the faithful, who adore
And confess you, evermore
In your sevenfold gift descend;
Give them virtue's sure reward;
Give them your salvation, Lord;
Give them joys that never end. Amen.
Alleluia.
