SPECIAL COLLECTION THIS WEEK: ST. VINCENT DE PAUL SOCIETY

It has become a tradition in our parish to take up a second collection to benefit our parish chapter of the St. Vincent de Paul Society whenever there is a 5th Sunday in any given month. June 29th is one of those Sundays. Please give as generously as you can. These contributions are used to buy food and, when we can, pay overdue utility bills and rent for people in great need who live within our parish boundaries.

PATRIOTIC CONCERT — All are invited to a free concert, with opportunities to sing along, at St. Andrew the Apostle Catholic Church, in Sierra Vista, on Friday, July 11 at 7:00 p.m. The concert of Americana music (John Philip Sousa, Irving Berlin and others) will feature the church's historic pipe organ as well as multiple other instruments. There will be no admission fee, but free will offerings will be accepted.

A SUMMER OF FAITH AND FOLKTALES

Our parish will have a special summer program for all ages on Sundays from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m., in Room 5 of the Education Building, from June 22 to August 3. This summer program will alternate explorations of some aspects of our Catholic Faith with exciting Vietnamese folk tales about some historical figures who showed intellect, bravery and leadership. On June 22, we will look at the Order of the Mass and the Liturgical Calendar; on July 13, we will examine the symbolic gestures used at Mass; on July 27, we will talk about the land of Israel and its relevance to our Faith. The Vietnamese folk tales will be featured on June 29, July 20 and August 3. For more information, call An Tran at 520-400-2642.

REGULAR COLLECTION REPORT

The collection total for June 21-22 is $2,381.
Thank you for your contributions to help support our parish.

Trinity Sunday, Cycle C

The Solemnity of Sts. Peter and Paul

Reading One Acts 12:1-11

In those days, King Herod laid hands upon some members of the Church to harm them.

He had James, the brother of John, killed by the sword, and when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews he proceeded to arrest Peter also.

–It was the feast of Unleavened Bread.–

He had him taken into custody and put in prison under the guard of four squads of four soldiers each.

He intended to bring him before the people after Passover. Peter thus was being kept in prison, but prayer by the Church was fervently being made to God on his behalf.

On the very night before Herod was to bring him to trial, Peter, secured by double chains, was sleeping between two soldiers, while outside the door guards kept watch on the prison.

Suddenly the angel of the Lord stood by him, and a light shone in the cell.

He tapped Peter on the side and awakened him, saying, “Get up quickly.”

The chains fell from his wrists.

The angel said to him,

“Put on your belt and your sandals.” He did so.

Then he said to him, “Put on your cloak and follow me.”

So he followed him out, not realizing that what was happening through the angel was real; he thought he was seeing a vision.

They passed the first guard, then the second, and came to the iron gate leading out to the city, which opened for them by itself.

They emerged and made their way down an alley, and suddenly the angel left him.

Then Peter recovered his senses and said,

“Now I know for certain that the Lord sent his angel and rescued me from the hand of Herod and from all that the Jewish people had been expecting.”

Responsorial Psalm Psalm 34:2-3, 4-5, 6-7, 8-9

R. The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

I will bless the LORD at all times;
his praise shall be ever in my mouth.

Let my soul glory in the LORD;
the lowly will hear me and be glad.

R. The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

Glorify the Lord with me,

let us together extol his name.

I sought the Lord, and he answered me and delivered me from all my fears.

R. The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

Look to him that you may be radiant with joy,
and your faces may not blush with shame.

When the poor one called out, the Lord heard,
and from all his distress he saved him.

R. The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

The angel of the Lord encamps around those who fear him, and delivers them.

Taste and see how good the Lord is;
blessed the man who takes refuge in him.

R. The angel of the Lord will rescue those who fear him.

Reading Two 2 Timothy 4:6-8, 17-18

I, Paul, am already being poured out like a libation, and the time of my departure is at hand.

I have competed well; I have finished the race; I have kept the faith. From now on the crown of righteousness awaits me, which the Lord, the just judge, will award to me on that day, and not only to me, but to all who have longed for his appearance.

The Lord stood by me and gave me strength,
so that through me the proclamation might be completed and all the Gentiles might hear it.

And I was rescued from the lion's mouth.

The Lord will rescue me from every evil threat and will bring me safe to his heavenly Kingdom.

To him be glory forever and ever. Amen.

Gospel Matthew 16:13-19

When Jesus went into the region of Caesarea Philippi
he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that the Son of Man is?” They replied,

“Some say John the Baptist, others Elijah, still others Jeremiah or one of the prophets.”

He said to them, “But who do you say that I am?”

Simon Peter said in reply, “You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.” Jesus said to him in reply, “Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah.

For flesh and blood has not revealed this to you, but my heavenly Father. And so I say to you, you are Peter, and upon this rock
I will build my Church, and the gates of the netherworld shall not prevail against it. I will give you the keys to the Kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven.”
