IT IS TIME FOR OUR ANNUAL SCHOOL SUPPLY DRIVE!

It is time for our annual School Supply Drive. It is always amazing to see the generosity of our parishioners. We will be helping 3 neighborhood schools with school supplies once again. The schools are always extremely appreciative of anything that will help their students succeed. Many students living near our church are unable to afford school supplies, which hinders their success in school. You can donate any of the following items you believe will help students succeed: backpacks, pencils, lined paper, pens, scissors, colored pencils, markers, crayons, rulers, binders, notebooks. There are bins in the vestibule to collect the donations through August 10. If you have any questions, please call Mary Lou at 520-488-3213.

A SUMMER OF FAITH AND FOLKTALES

Our parish is having a special summer program for all ages on Sundays from 10:00 to 11:30 a.m., in Room 5 of the Education Building, from June 22 to August 3. This summer program will alternate explorations of aspects of our Catholic Faith with Vietnamese folk tales about historical figures who showed intellect, bravery and leadership. For more information, call An Tran at 520-400-2642.

OCIA/RCIA CLASSES TO BE OFFERED HERE THIS FALL

OCIA/RCIA classes will start in September. The initials stand for Order of Christian Initiation for Adults, or Rite of Christian Initiation for Adults. The classes begin a process of spiritual initiation that can lead to Baptism, First Communion and/or Confirmation. Contact Deacon Charlie by email (eldiacono64@gmail.com) if you are interested in registering for the upcoming classes to become a Catholic or obtain your Sacraments.

REGULAR COLLECTION REPORT

The collection total for July 5-6 is $2,115.

Thank you for your contributions to help support our parish.

Cycle C : 15th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Reading One Deuteronomy 30:10-14

Moses said to the people:

"If only you would heed the voice of the LORD, your God, and keep his commandments and statutes that are written in this book of the law, when you return to the LORD, your God, with all your heart and all your soul.

"For this command that I enjoin on you today is not too mysterious and remote for you.

It is not up in the sky, that you should say,

'Who will go up in the sky to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'

Nor is it across the sea, that you should say,

'Who will cross the sea to get it for us and tell us of it, that we may carry it out?'

No, it is something very near to you, already in your mouths and in your hearts; you have only to carry it out."

Responsorial Psalm

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

I pray to you, O LORD,
for the time of your favor, O God!

In your great kindness answer me
with your constant help.

Answer me, O LORD, for bounteous is your kindness:
in your great mercy turn toward me.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

I am afflicted and in pain;
let your saving help, O God, protect me.

I will praise the name of God in song,
and I will glorify him with thanksgiving.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

"See, you lowly ones, and be glad;
you who seek God, may your hearts revive!

For the LORD hears the poor,
and his own who are in bonds he spurns not."

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

For God will save Zion
and rebuild the cities of Judah.

The descendants of his servants shall inherit it,
and those who love his name shall inhabit it.

R. Turn to the Lord in your need, and you will live.

Reading Two Colossians 1:15-20

Christ Jesus is the image of the invisible God,
the firstborn of all creation.

For in him were created all things in heaven and on earth,
the visible and the invisible,
whether thrones or dominions or principalities or powers;
all things were created through him and for him.
He is before all things, and in him all things hold together.
He is the head of the body, the church.

He is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead,
that in all things he himself might be preeminent.
For in him all the fullness was pleased to dwell,
and through him to reconcile all things for him,
making peace by the blood of his cross
through him, whether those on earth or those in heaven.

Gospel Luke 10:25-37

There was a scholar of the law who stood up to test Jesus and said,
"Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

Jesus said to him, "What is written in the law?

How do you read it?" He said in reply,

"You shall love the Lord, your God, with all your heart, with all your being,
with all your strength, and with all your mind,
and your neighbor as yourself."

He replied to him, "You have answered correctly;
do this and you will live."

But because he wished to justify himself, he said to Jesus,
"And who is my neighbor?"

Jesus replied, "A man fell victim to robbers
as he went down from Jerusalem to Jericho.

They stripped and beat him and went off leaving him half-dead.

A priest happened to be going down that road,
but when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.

Likewise a Levite came to the place,
and when he saw him, he passed by on the opposite side.

But a Samaritan traveler who came upon him was moved with compassion at the sight.

He approached the victim,
poured oil and wine over his wounds and bandaged them.

Then he lifted him up on his own animal,
took him to an inn, and cared for him.

The next day he took out two silver coins
and gave them to the innkeeper with the instruction,
'Take care of him.

If you spend more than what I have given you,
I shall repay you on my way back.'

Which of these three, in your opinion,
was neighbor to the robbers' victim?"

He answered, "The one who treated him with mercy."

Jesus said to him, "Go and do likewise."
