OUR PARISH AND CLERGY

St. Frances Cabrini and Our Lady of La Vang parishes are combined. Officially, the name of our Parish is Our Lady of La Vang, but our church is St. Frances Cabrini Church. Our Pastor is Father Dominic Hao Pham, C.Ss.R. Brother Peter Duc Nguyen and Brother (and Deacon) John the Baptist Dai Ho are also in residence. All are members of the Redemptorist Order. Fr. Dominic currently presides at all of the Masses, unless he has to be out of town, in which case he will arrange for a substitute priest. Deacon Charles Gallegos assists at 10:30 Mass. You may leave a message for any of the clergy at the parish office number, (520) 326-7670. To reach Fr. Dominic directly, call 520-667-6066. Deacon Charlie, who is in charge of Adult Religious Education, may be contacted at eldiacono64@gmail.com. Deacon Binh Ly, who assists at Masses in Vietnamese, may be reached at binhly@cox.net.

Note of Apology: I mistakenly used the readings for this Sunday in last Sunday's bulletin! Well, at least last Sunday's Gospel also used a vineyard as a metaphor. — Eileen

The complete Readings for today, on which we celebrate the 27th Sunday in Ordinary Time, may be found on pages 204-206 of the Breaking Bread missals. The First Reading (Isaiah 5: 1-7), the Responsorial Psalm (selected verses of Psalm 80) and the Gospel all use metaphorical language about vineyards, vines, grapes and their growers. In the Gospel, Jesus tells a parable about wicked tenants who want to keep all the produce of the vineyard for themselves, and who even kill the son of the vineyard owner to try to keep possession of it.

BULLETIN CHANGES COMING

These parish bulletins were produced using Publisher, which we have used for years and is easy to use. But Microsoft is discontinuing Publisher as of October, so this is the last Bulletin I will be able to do with this software. Next Sunday, we may have a very simple bulletin using Word (which is fine for text but not easy to work images into), or we may not have a bulletin. I am going to attempt to learn to use a Publisher alternative, but that will require watching a number of instructional videos and getting used to working with the new software. Please bear with me! —- Eileen

CHURCH UNDER RENOVATION; FUNDS NEEDED

The renovation of our church building has begun. All Masses will be held in the Parish Hall until the completion of the renovation; it will probably take at least until June. A new main entrance and vestibule, plus restrooms, will be added to the west side of the building. The beautiful stained glass windows on the west side will be saved but differently placed. There will be space within the vestibule where parents can take crying babies, and we will also have a new sacristy, and another small room where altar servers can change. There will be an outdoor shrine of Our Lady of La Vang at the far west side of the parking lot, facing the new entrance. There will also be changes to the south side of the church. The flooring in the entire church will be replaced and the inside of the church will be repainted. A sprinkling system in case of fire will be installed. The altar, the choir area, and almost everything else will be put back in the same places. Posters in the back of the Hall depict some of the changes.

Money in the parish savings account has allowed us to start the project, but prices of everything have gone up since it was first envisioned, so additional money is needed. Please be as generous as you can, and pray for the successful completion of the renovation. Checks should be made out to Our Lady of La Vang Parish.
